

ANIMAL FEED

ANIMAL FEED Products from India

Taj Agro Products has a rich experience of over 5 yrs. in the business of Animal Feeds. Starting from humble beginnings of a single feed mill in Mumbai, it has grown into the one of the largest producer of commercial Animal Feed in India, with a strong presence in Dairy Feed, Aqua Feed and Poultry Feed sectors. Its production facilities are spread over 20 locations across the country. Despite the vast geographical and cultural diversity of India, Taj Agro Products has managed to develop quality feeds appreciated by farmers across the country. This can only be attributed to its strong grass root level understanding of India.

Taj Agro Product's success in the livestock sector is based on a single guiding principle What's good for the consumer is good for the business. A great example of this philosophy in action is Manthan - a highly creative and effective demand creation model that guides and provides customized solutions to help cattle farmers increase milk output and also market the end produce. Such successful initiatives have not only benefited the farmers, but have also made Taj Agro Products the one of trustable player in this business.
